HISTORIC CHILD SEXUAL ASSAULT OFFENCES

Investigations by Child Abuse Squad Detectives relating to an allegation of child abuse at a Catholic School in 1969, has resulted in a 68 year old man being charged on Friday, 27 June 2014.

It is alleged in 1969, the man who was a teacher at St Benedict's College in New Norcia, indecently assaulted a boy who was 13 years old at the time.

The 68 year old man from the Australian Capital Territory has been charged with three counts of Indecent Treatment of Children Under 14.

He is due to appear in the Perth Magistrates Court on Friday, 25 July 2014.

If you are or have been a victim of child abuse, or if you have information about someone being abused, please contact police on 131 444. Ends release. Susan Usher Police Media 30 June 2014
