

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) APPLICATIONS

- Please provide as much information as possible to enable the identification of relevant documents.
- If you are seeking access to a document(s) on behalf of another person, the agency will require authorisation from that person, usually in writing.
- Your valid application will be processed as soon as possible (and, in any case, within 45 days) after it is received.
- The Freedom of Information Act 1992 is available for purchase from the State Government Bookshop, 815 Hay Street, Perth (phone (08) 9222 8216) or download via the State Law Publisher website (www.slp.wa.gov.au).
- Further information can be obtained from WA Police FOI by calling (08) 6229 5900.

Forms of Access

You may request access to documents in many ways including by inspection or requesting a copy of a document. Other methods of access are available. To discuss these, please call (08) 6229 5900.

Where WA Police are unable to grant access in the form requested, access may be given in another form.

Fees and Charges

- No fees or charges are applicable for an access application for personal information about the applicant.
- An application fee of $30 is applicable in every instance for applications for non-personal information.
- No fees are applicable for an internal or external review.
- WA Police FOI may seek charges for postage, special arrangements for access or for specialised access such as reproductions.
- Charges may be waived or reduced if the applicant is impecunious. Evidence to substantiate this claim must always be provided.
