

WESTERN AUSTRALIA POLICE

Community Crime Prevention Fund Successful Applicants July 2015 – June 2016

Applicant	Project Title	Project Description	Approved Amount
Angelhands Inc.	Life Program	Angelhands will deliver 10 sessions to educate women residing in refuges how to recognise and respond to early indications of abuse.	$15,922
City of Armadale	Gone in Less Than 60 Seconds	The City of Armadale will work with six other local governments to implement a strategy to reduce motor vehicle crime in the South East Metropolitan District. They will display a marked vehicle with items commonly stolen from vehicles in crime hotspot locations.	$25,000
City of Gosnells	Seniors Home Safety Audit and Awareness (HSAA) Program	The City of Gosnells will conduct home safety audits for seniors identified as victims of crime or at risk of becoming victims of crime. The City of Gosnells will offer financial assistance towards the installation of security lights and provide participants with a home safety pack containing a crime prevention DVD and information kit.	$9,400
City of Greater Geraldton	Lighting Up Lester Avenue	The City of Greater Geraldton will upgrade street lighting on Lester Avenue to improve community safety.	$19,970
City of Karratha	Good Vibes at Roebourne Rotunda	The City of Karratha will install lighting, cabling and vandal proof cages at Roebourne Rotunda to reduce alcohol consumption in the area.	$9,900
Floreat Uniting Church	Positive Futures	Floreat Uniting Church will engage at risk young aboriginal people in two camps with facilitators, to run daily group sessions with a focus on goal setting and group reflection to equip participants with the knowledge and confidence in transitioning into employment and social activities. Participants will learn new skills and gain confidence to strengthen positive behaviour.	$18,292
Geraldton Local Drug Action Group	Alcohol and Other Drug Health and Wellbeing Forums	Geraldton Local Drug Action Group will coordinate resilience and drug education forums for year five and six students in Geraldton, Mullewa and Northampton.	$19,039
Goldfields Women's Refuge	Supporting Survivors of Domestic and Family Violence	The Goldfields Women's Refuge will provide group therapy sessions for up to twenty women residing at the refuge to develop strategies to break the cycle of violence.	$25,000
Halls Creek Local Drug Action Group	Theatre of Transformation Stage 2	Halls Creek Local Drug Action Group will employ a theatre company to engage young people enrolled at Halls Creek High School in a two week theatre program focusing on the impact of alcohol and other drugs.	$21,735
Ishar Multicultural Women's Health Centre	Daring to Speak	Ishar Multicultural Women's Health Centre will provide victims of family and domestic violence with the information, education, strategies and skills to address personal family and domestic violence incidents.	$25,000
Jobs South West	Change of Directions	Jobs South West will deliver a series of workshops on health and lifestyle topics, alcohol and drug abuse to disengaged young people involved in criminal behaviour who are referred by Police and Juvenile and Justice Officers.	$24,992
Kensington PCYC	Zone 51	PCYC Kensington will engage prolific and priority offenders through structured activities during school holidays which will focus on personal development.	$24,550
Koolkuna	Koolkuna Domestic Violence Training Package	Koolkuna will work with Curtin University School to develop a victim informed training resource for people working in government agencies to improve their understanding on how best to respond and support victims of domestic violence.	$25,000
Kurungal Council	Family Group Intervention	The Kurungal Council will establish a wardens unit in the Wangaktjunga Community in Fitzroy Crossing. Wardens will be rostered to patrol one evening per week to help assist in reducing crime by stopping alcohol and drugs coming into the community and also reduce domestic violence and antisocial behavior.	$25,000
Laverton Local Drug Alcohol Group	BBQ Trailer	Laverton Local Drug Action Group will purchase a BBQ trailer to provide catering at events where there is the opportunity to raise awareness and educate about issues related to alcohol and other drugs	$14,832
Mission Australia	Carnarvon Family & Domestic Violence Victim Support	Mission Australia will provide one-to-one counselling and support for women and children experiencing family and domestic violence in Carnarvon. Counselling and group sessions will also be provided to perpetrators to amend violent behaviours and attitudes.	$25,000
Ngnowar Aerwah Aboriginal Corporation	Introductory Horsemanship Program	Ngnowar Aerwah Aboriginal Corporation will introduce a horsemanship program to participants aged between 12 and 16 years, who are known to police, youth justice and child protection and family services. Participants will learn safe working practices, ride horses, learn property management, clean equipment, prepare meals and more over four months.	$25,000
Peel Youth Services Incorporated	Fix It	Peel Youth Services will implement a program to engage young men aged between 12 to 18 years who are connected to the Juvenile Justice Teams, to learn household handyman skills, to repair household items that may be sold or utilised by them to start their own business.	$24,390
Punmu Aboriginal Corporation	Punmu Youth Centre	Punmu Aboriginal Corporation will purchase resources for the youth centre which will be made available for support organisations to deliver alcohol and drug prevention programs. The youth centre is located within the Jigalong multi-functional police facility subdistrict, allowing a central location to interact with young people and talk about criminal responsibilities, protective behaviours and other issues.	$3,964
Roots TV	Early Intervention Program for Youth At - Risk	Roots TV will engage students in after school media workshops delivered from local community venues. This early intervention program supports young muslim men who are at-risk of disengaging from school.	$19,750

WESTERN AUSTRALIA POLICE

Community Crime Prevention Fund Successful Applicants July 2015 – June 2016

Applicant	Project Title	Project Description	Approved Amount
Shire of Collie	Raise Your Hand Against Domestic Violence	The Shire of Collie will implement an eight week advertising campaign to raise awareness of family and domestic violence and the support available to assist women and families in the region.	$2,330
Shire of Denmark	Youth Precinct Upgrade	The Shire of Denmark will install adequate lighting in the Youth Precinct area, Brazier Street Denmark to reduce antisocial behaviour, graffiti and littering that occurs at the local skate park.	$6,338
Shire of Dumbleyung	Shine a Light On Crime	The Shire of Dumbleyung will install lighting at the Dumbleyung playground and skate park and the Kukerin public space to deter offending behaviour and increase community safety.	$12,391
Shire of Goomalling	Goomalling Youth Zone	The Shire of Goomalling will employ a Youth Officer to run programs for local youth at the drop in centre to address the issue of young people congregating in groups on the streets and engaging in anti social behaviour.	$17,679
Shire of Kalamunda	Forrestfield Skate Park Security Lighting	The Shire of Kalamunda will install lighting at the Forrestfield skate park to address antisocial and criminal behaviour.	$25,000
Shire of Morawa	Wheels Week	The Shire of Morawa will implement a six day youth program during the April 2016 school holidays. Skate Boarding WA will facilitate a one day skateboarding workshop including information about the consequences of engaging in antisocial behaviour.	$8,000
Shire of Murray	Spotlight on Skate	The Shire of Murray will install solar lights at the Pinjarra skate park with hope that usage on weeknights and weekends will distract young people from antisocial behaviour.	$24,691
Shire of Murray	Social EYEs	The Shire of Murray will run a series of social events to activate local parks that have been identified by the community as being unsafe. The activities aim to turn the parks into family oriented places where people feel safe to visit.	$9,569
Torchbearers for Legacy in Western Australia Inc.	Personal Alarms and Home Security	Torchbearers for Legacy in WA will raise awareness of personal safety issues and enhance security in the homes of vulnerable widows by having discussions about personal safety and home security issues. Financial assistance will be provided for security devices and personal alarms.	$25,000
Western Australian Family Violence Prevention	Ochre Ribbon Round	The Ochre Ribbon Round campaign will deliver the Don't Silence the Violence message throughout football clubs and the Goldfields communities to raise awareness about domestic violence. By wearing the shirts and other clothing, the players will participate in the campaign and feel part of the anti-violence movement.	$4,500
Wirrimanu Aboriginal Corporation	Empowering Futures	Wirrimanu Aboriginal Corporation will engage at risk aboriginal youth to take part in an adventure camp and a half day workshop with Kimberley Mental Health & Drug Service team to reduce antisocial behaviour.	$25,000
Yaandina Family Support Inc.	Karratha Young Men's Group	Yaandina Family Support will deliver a program targeting young men between 14 and 18 years of age, to address a range of issues including sexual health, social and emotional wellbeing, positive relationships and establishing a sense of community connectedness, while diverting them from engaging in antisocial behaviour.	$25,000
Yakanarra Aboriginal Corporation	Walmajarri Junior Rangers	Yakanarra Aboriginal Corporation will implement the Walmajarri Junior Rangers Program in the Yakanarra community and surrounding Walmajarri Country. In conjunction with Yakanarra Community School and elders of the community, activities will be undertaken to protect the country and increase young people's cultural knowledge to encourage young people with the aim of them becoming highly successful rangers.	$6,952
Youth Involvement Council	YIC Social Enterprise Project	Youth Involvement Council will provide at risk youth, aged between 15 to 25 years job readiness experience to provide them with skills and experience to gain employment and break the cycle of offending.	$25,000
Zonta House Women's Refuge	Positive Pathways Education Workshops	Zonta House Refuge will deliver the Positive Pathways Education Workshops designed to empower and educate women who have experienced family and domestic violence with the aim to rebuild their self-esteem, emotional resilience and self-confidence.	$25,000