

62A. Causing excessive noise or smoke from vehicle's tyres

A person commits an offence if the person wilfully drives a motor vehicle so as to cause one or more of its tyres to create smoke or excessive noise in or on, or leave a substance on the driving surface of —

- (a) a confiscation zone; or
- (b) any other length of road; or
- (c) a carpark.

Penalty: a fine of 30 PU.